Four United Way of Northern Nevada and the Sierra Business Partners Complete Inaugural Workplace Campaigns

Reno, Nev. — Four northern Nevada businesses have recently completed their first-ever United Way of Northern Nevada and the Sierra (UWNNS) workplace campaign to raise money for the community. Eaton Industries, Fennemore Craig, New Millennium Building Systems and Video Gaming Technologies, Inc., all partnered with UWNNS for the first time in 2013 to conduct workplace giving campaigns encouraging employees to donate to UWNNS to help make a positive difference.

New Millennium Building Systems in Fallon, provided a 30 percent match on all employee donations and was able to pledge nearly $21,000 to UWNNS. New Millennium is a resource for competitive structural steel solutions and is a division of Steel Dynamics, the fifth largest steel supplier in the U.S.

Eaton Industries in Reno raised more than $4,000 for UWNNS. In addition the workplace campaign, Eaton held a Bake Sale and BBQ in support UWNNS and raised an additional $246. Eaton is a power management company providing energy-efficient solutions that help their customers effectively manage electrical, hydraulic and mechanical power.

Fennemore Craig in Reno raised more than $1,800 in employee contributions and corporate support. Fennemore Craig is a law firm servicing companies in aerospace, real estate development, retail, technology and biotechnology, petroleum, mining, sports, manufacturing, agribusiness, and financial services among many others

Video Gaming Technologies, Inc., in Reno provided a one-to-one corporate match on all employee donations to UWNNS and raised $104. Video Gaming Technologies, Inc. is a leading manufacturer of games for Class II and emerging gaming markets.

About United Way of Northern Nevada and the Sierra

The foundation that nurtures and supports healthy lives is made up of three, interconnected 'building blocks' – education, financial stability and health. United Way is ideally suited to create positive, lasting change by addressing all three areas as one – through proper expertise, capacity and relationships. Join us! Bring your passion, knowledge and resources to get things done all across our community. We all win when a child succeeds in school, when a neighborhood turns around and when workers have solid jobs.
